

Charged with burglary. Police failed to make case.

Body of murdered Italian found at Halsted and Chicago av. Beaten and stabbed. Three countrymen held as suspects. Identity unknown.

A. Pace, sec'y Produce Terminal Corp., spoke before Executive club, says terminal would save millions yearly to Chicagoans.

483 young men proposed to Jessie Wood, Glencoe. She has picked 7 candidates. Will place them on probation 3 years.

Dr. Herbert Clafin, 77, widower, met his bride-to-be, Mrs. Laura Whitbeck, 43, Syracuse, N. Y., at station yesterday. To be married soon.

Mrs. John McIsaacs, 1259 N. La Salle, died under anesthetic in hospital. Had jaw broken. Husband held. Denies he beat her.

William Mack asks Mrs. Young to bring matter of establishing citizenship classes in schools before board of education.

Sup't of Oak Forest poorhouse asks bundle day committee to give inmates clothing. Annual spring exodus to seek jobs begun.

Mrs. Julia Patera, 937 W. 54th, held to grand jury for murder. Alleges to have performed illegal operation on Mrs. Elinor Cassidy.

Thomas Clark, dean of undergraduates of Ill. "U," spoke before Austin High School Parents' club. Blames parents for failure of sons in college.

German-Americans sending food to Germany by means of parcel post. Think to evade blockade by this means.

Dempsey Cantsla, sent to Bridewell. Before night court for stealing pennies from newsstands.

Police looking for John Delaney, salesman. Disappeared.

SUCH A HEADACHE!

New York.—Dazed by his first cigar, Harry Addison, 7, staggered into the street and was run over by a delivery wagon.

STRIKE BREAKERS BROUGHT HERE AND ABANDONED

Jobless, penniless, starving, five "strikebreakers," deserted by the one who hired them, shambled into the office of the department of public welfare to plead for means to return to their home in Cincinnati.

They had been brought to Chicago to do scab work for contractors who had locked out union lathers. The contractors had found they had no use for them, so they kicked them out and told them to "beat it."

These five have learned that the path trodden by a "strikebreaker" is not a primrose one. They have not only lost caste with workingmen who are fair, but they have been gleefully knifed by an employer who no longer required their services. For them as it always is for all strikebreakers, it was a game of "heads you win, tails I lose."

In reality they are not "strikebreakers"—though that is what they were hired as—for there is no strike of lathers. The lathers did not strike. They were locked out.

"We were hired in Cincinnati Tuesday night," the men told Commissioner Leonora Z. Meder. "Our fare was paid to Chicago. We were told this would be taken out of our salaries. In Chicago we went to an office where a man named J. W. Shelby, who said he represented A. D. Pecoy, 17 N. La Salle, made us sign contracts."

"At Pecoy's office we were turned over to a man named Cummings."

"We have been kept virtual prisoners in the Imperial hotel, 316 S. State st. We have received no pay and we are starving."

"Friday morning we were kicked out of the hotel. Cummings said he didn't want us any more. We have no money. We don't know how we can get any. We want something to eat and a way to get back to Cincinnati."

Mrs. Meder got busy with scant